11. Assessment and Decision Makers

- 11.1 Applications will be assessed against the eligibility criteria by Assessment Officers on the Assessment Team, who are responsible for routine assessment against the criteria in these guidelines and recommend assessment outcomes.
- 11.2 Program Officers on the Assessment Team ensure the scheme is administered in accordance with these guidelines and the policy intent and approve rebates based on recommendations by Assessment Officers.
- 11.3 The Chief Executive of the RAA is responsible for ensuring the scheme is administered in accordance with approved criteria and policy intent.
- 11.4 The RAA reserves the right to request further information from you or from any business or individual you have engaged to assist in assessing your application and to verify any information provided in your application. Failure to provide such information may result in the RAA refusing your application.
- 11.5 The RAA reserves the right to refuse an application where eligibility criteria are not met or where you do not or cannot provide sufficient information for the RAA to determine if eligibility criteria have been met.
- 11.6 The RAA can put an application on hold where the applicant is under investigation or has been charged in relation to the fraudulent receipt of grants or rebates under this or other RAA programs or schemes.

- 11.7 Complete applications will be assessed in order of receipt. Incomplete applications will not enter the assessment queue until all required information is provided.
- 11.8 Applicants should note that past financial assistance under this scheme or any other program or scheme is not a reliable indicator of eligibility for future financial assistance under this scheme.
- 11.9 Applications submitted may be subject to audit by the RAA or its agents in order to determine compliance with scheme guidelines.

12. Approval

- 12.1 Applicants will be notified of the outcome within 30 business days after submitting a completed application.

- 13.3 Invoice claim close dates are shown on Page 1 of these guidelines and on the RAA website.
- 13.4 The claiming period may be extended until the end of the program based on proof of order.

14. Fraudulent Claims

- 14.1 The RAA takes fraud and corruption seriously. Suspected fraud will be assessed and investigated as appropriate, which may require the involvement of external parties such as the NSW Police Force or the NSW Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC).
- 14.2 By signing the claim form, you declare that the information provided in the application form and supporting documentation is true and accurate.
- 14.3 Providing inaccurate, untrue or misleading information may be a breach of the Rural Assistance Act 1989 (NSW) or criminal law for which serious penalties may apply.
- 14.4 The RAA responds to fraud by:
- a. audit and site validation of applications and claims that are of concern
  - b. referral to the NSW Police Force or ICAC of suspected fraud
  - c. recovery of any assistance provided under a fraudulent application.
- 14.5 An application approval, or payment of a claim against an approved rebate, may be delayed where:
- a. assistance previously provided by this or any other related NSW government grant or rebate program or scheme cannot be validated or

- b. the outcome of relevant legal or validation actions may impact the decision to grant further assistance.

15. Important Information

- 15.1 These guidelines are correct at the time of publishing.
  - 15.2 The RAA reserves the right to amend, alter or change these guidelines at any time. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that they check the relevant website prior to making a claim.
  - 15.3 Without limiting any rights, the RAA (or another NSW agency), in its sole discretion, may recover funds from the claimant and determine that a debt is due if evidence indicates that the claimant:
    - a. did not meet the eligibility criteria
    - b. received an overpayment of the rebate.

16. Evaluation

- 16.1 The RAA is committed to providing excellent service that responds to your needs through well-targeted programs. For that reason, the RAA evaluates its programs. This includes surveys at various points of your application, approval and completion. The RAA may also contact you to ask about your experience of the assistance you received. The RAA will always treat the responses you provide as confidential and use the information only for the purposes it was collected.

19. Definitions

Approval: your application will be approved based on your eligibility with the criteria listed in Section 5. Your invoices will be approved based on their eligibility with the criteria listed in Section 6. In the event of an early close, the RAA will pay invoices ranked by the date received up to the allocated funding. An approved application does not imply an approved invoice.

Farmed goat: any breed or type of goat that is not a harvested rangeland goat, which is managed or semi-managed on a property and is subject to animal husbandry procedures and managed breeding programs.

Mandatory individual electronic identification (eID) tagging: means

- a. sheep or farmed goats must be identified with an approved electronic NLIS device that was assigned for use on that property before they leave their property of birth, or
- b. sheep or farmed goats must either be carrying an approved electronic NLIS device attached by an earlier owner or an approved electronic NLIS post-breeder device that is assigned for use on the property from which they will be dispatched before leaving a property that is not their property of birth.

Property Identification Number: a unique eight-character code assigned by Local Land Services to properties with livestock and placed into a district register.

Primary production enterprise:

- is carried on by a primary producer and involves primary production, as defined by the ANZSIC Code for Agriculture, Forestry and Fishing, but excludes activities from the ANZSIC Code that involve animals that are not bred for farm work, food or fibre; hunting and trapping activities; or agriculture, forestry and fishing support services
- is registered for tax purposes in Australia with an Australian Business Number (ABN)
- is not a public company under the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)
- is, in the opinion of the RAA, a bona fide primary production enterprise that:
  - has a significant commercial purpose or character
  - has more than a mere intention to engage in primary production
  - has the intention to make a profit or a genuine belief that a profit will be made
  - has repetition and regularity in the activity
  - is the same kind and carried on in a similar way to that of similar primary production enterprises

- is organised in a business-like manner.

Proof of order: a valid tax invoice showing a deposit has been made for an order.

Valid tax invoice: a paid invoice including the name, address and ABN (if applicable) of the entity that issued the invoice and a description of each item to which the invoice relates, which is clearly identifiable as being related to approved expenditure for the applicant. The RAA will ask for proof of payment of the invoice.

You and your: in the context of these guidelines and the related application process, refers to the applicant and can be taken to refer to a sole trader, company, partnership or trust. The RAA takes you as having the authority to make an application on behalf of the entity applying.
